

A map of Estonia is shown, colored in a dark red/maroon hue. The map includes a network of light grey lines representing roads or administrative boundaries. The country's name in Japanese, 'エストニア', is written in the center in a bold, black font with a white outline. The surrounding area is light blue, representing water, and some white landmasses are visible at the bottom left and top right.

エストニア